

So YOU WANT to show?

You're Currently.....	You should.....
In hour lessons.	Work on skills to graduate to half hours lessons.
In half hour lessons.	Ask about lease riding.
Lease riding.	Work on being confident riding in the outdoor and in large groups.
Riding outside in all three gaits controlled.	Sign up for a trail ride!
Have trail ridden successfully.	Ask about going to a dressage show.
Jumping in the outdoor and around the property.	Ask about cross country schooling options.
Have been cross country schooling.	Ask to sign up for a derby or jumps show.
You have competed at derbies and are jumping well of property.	Ask about a recognized event.
You're competing recognized.	Ask about programs to earn scholarships or grants.
Competing at dressage schooling shows and excelling.	Sign up for recognized.
You're competing recognized in dressage or 3-day.	Work on getting your medals. Qualifying for championships locally, regionally, or nationally!

How to navigate IF showing is right for you.

Attend the PLS schooling shows camps and clinics. Join adventures off

Do I want to show?

YES

I own or full lease a horse

YES

No

Do you own or lease a horse

NO

yes

No

Trail rides and off property events are a fun way to do more with your horse. Join a trail association or attend workshops or clinics. Enjoy the partnership with you horse.

Start by attending trail rides and off property events with your horse.

Continue taking lessons and attend shows and clinics to gain experience and knowledge as a groom or to help.

No

I can trailer load a horse

Yes

I HAVE gone off property and feel confident on my horse

No

Try attending some schooling dressage shows and off property Xc Schooling events to gain confidence for you and your horse.

Take lessons on trailer loading and make sure you have the right skills to handle your horse in hard situations. Take ground lessons.

My horse and I are confident jumping and doing flat work at home and off property. I can handle my own horse in hand

YES

Go to some schooling shows, derbies, or jumper days.

Once you and your horse are competing successfully at schooling shows, recognized shows are just a hoof beat away.

Start by leasing or buying a partner to have fun with